

Firewall Switch Plate

Installing air ride and/or air ride components requires the installer to check clearances of the tire to fender as well as all other components throughout the entire travel of the air shocks, failure do so could cause component failure or unwanted damage. Failures of this type are not covered under warranty. If you have a clearance issue call or email for a solution before you ride.

